Evaluating the effects of an online community of practice

Many factors contribute to preventable child and infant mortality globally including a shortage of well-educated health care professionals, heavy workloads in pediatric departments, and lack of time for professional development. These factors are particularly acute in developing countries. Online Communities of Practice (OCOPs) create opportunities for those with limited access to high quality

Characterization on the patents deposits from Brazil's

Based on the survey held, it is possible to notice that there is a sharper movement in the patents without partnership. However the statistics F of the regression presented a p-value bigger than 0.3870 which shows that the angular coefficient or the one applied to x (years with production), it is not significantly different from zero. When the two last years (2012 and 2013) are disposed there

Digital and Other Virtualities Renegotiating the Image

This book is not another chapter in the proliferating literature on the crisis of representation occasioned by the digital revolution. We will, of course, discuss some aspects of this. Nor is it an apologia for a brave new cyber world, whose implications must, however, be taken seriously. The thinkers, Im-makers and artists collected here
