Forgiveness Illustration Praying the Scriptures

God is Not Mad at You. How simple it is to just ask God to forgive you for your sins. You can't make your way to heaven by doing good works. Good works should be a result of giving your heart to Jesus, not an effort just to be good enough to go to heaven. When we do go to the Father for forgiveness, we're covered by Jesus' crucifixion.

Jesus received God's wrath and judgment in our place so that we might receive God's mercy and grace instead. If God's wrath for sin is minimized, his holiness is compromised and Jesus' sacrifice becomes pointless. But if God is not showing mercy for sin at the cross, the crucifixion becomes an act of divine child abuse.

Does God get angry GotQuestions org

As James 1:20 says, Human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires. The context of the verses of God getting angry reveals why He gets angry. God gets angry when there is a violation of His character. God is righteous, just, and holy, and none of these attributes can be compromised (Exodus 20:4 6; Isaiah 42:8).
