Book Review The Battle of Gettysburg 1863 I Survived

Personal Response-I thought I Survived The Battle of Gettysburg 1863 was a very exciting read due to its many facts. My other thought is it was very sad. I was glad to see the characters are able to escape the plantation, but also sad to see that those people, who were forced into slavery, were treated so harshly and unfairly.

Little of it is actually about Gettysburg. I would have liked if the author had separated this into two separate books - one following the main characters focusing on "I Survived the Underground Railroad" and one that follows someone actually IN the battle of Gettysburg (using the title of this book).
